

KLAUS AMSTEL

Klaus is an Internationally renowned maestro who is in the country as conductor in residence with the Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra. Bored with life on the apple isle he has asked for more engagements on the mainland. With this in mind he inadvertently accepts a gig from his publicist without listening to the brief. Thus he finds himself at your event.

Klaus uses the opportunity to take a swipe at our great southern land. Everything from moccasins to savaloyes come under the gun as he unleashes frustration born of his term of imprisonment in the penal colonies. The audience are not saved from the crossfire as he force-feeds their own culture in retribution for 5 months of vegemite on toast.
