

HOW GOOD'S THIS

For 'How Goods This' Callinan & Mooney joined forces with Greg Fleet, Marty Sheargold and Des Dowling to create a live sketch show, which also showcased pre recorded sketches. The premise – a group of up and coming comedians are asked to produce a TV sketch comedy show. The network keep the cameras on them in reality TV style so the audience get to see the project coming together. Thus the back story of each performer was played out in between the actual sketches they'd created.
